CREATIVE ART & PLAY FOR TOTS

Limited seats for this popular program. Register today!

Miss Jenna is back and will offer summer sessions of Creative Art and Play for Tots! Families have loved her summer programs, especially the kiddos! Your toddler wants a fun and creative outlet! Join your child in an organized environment that is designed to allow for learning, play, and artistic expression. Learning games will be incorporated with a story time and related art activity. Each class is designed to help develop your child's fine motor skills, appropriate for his/her age level. Parents will learn age-appropriate art activities to help encourage their child's artistic expression. All art projects will be keepsakes for you and your child to bring home each week. All supplies will be provided. It is a great opportunity for socialization, too! Please join us!

Instructor: Jenna Capezuti is a NYS Certified teacher and has been teaching for over 18 years. She is the mother of three boys: an 11 year old and twin six year olds. She understands the different developmental needs for various age groups. She has designed the classes to promote the idea that learning can be fun and creative!

Parents! Tag along with your child. Parent participation is strongly encouraged! This type of play is essential for your child's development.

Please send your child with a light snack and water bottle.

ARTFUL AFTERNOONS

Instructor Lisa Mancini will lead these afternoon art classes for various levels. Each session will include 3 works of art during this program. One will be made in Impressionist style using acrylic paint on canvas board, the next will be realistic in style using colored pencils and a non-toxic solvent on bristol paper, and the last one will be a "Nature Journal" where quick sketches of different plants, flowers, fungi, and creatures may be drawn and labeled. Instruction, demonstrations, and a brief Art History lesson highlighting artists who use these styles in their work will be given. Short games will be played during break times for the younger groups.

Please send your child with a light snack and water bottle.
